

The House

Our private holiday dwellings for families with children, married couples, friends and pensioners are on the western coast of the island Teneriffa in Puerto de Santiago, not far away from the sea on a hill, so that one has a direct view to the sea, with a beautiful little fisher's port..

There are two beaches within walking distance of your apartment (10 - 15 minutes away), but there are also direct bus connections.

You'll live in calm, exclusive private dwellings for 2-6 persons.

Each apartment has its own large terrace to the sea- Enjoy the fantastically beautiful view of the sea and the island Gomera.

To the housing equipment belong a television set with satellite reception (approx. 30 German-language television stations) as well as a CD-stereo system.

All apartments are completely equipped according to German high-quality standard.

The sleeping areas are generously divided. Bedlinen and towels are placed. Additional beds and baby beds are available, as well as a washing machine.
